SCOPE AND PURPOSE

Because of numerous recent changes in the laws relating to nonprofit organizations, and increased scrutiny by state and federal regulatory authorities and the press, it is imperative that those working in the nonprofit sector and those providing outside advice keep abreast of current legal developments. At this special six-hour telecast, viewers will learn about:

- The “View from the IRS” and how the IRS looks at intermediate sanctions
- Unrelated Business Income Tax -- overview and recent developments
- Corporate and charitable solicitation issues in light of Illinois Ex Rel. Madigan v. Telemarketing Associates, Inc., and state initiatives
- Governance issues as affected by Sarbanes-Oxley
- Funding foreign grantees -- problems and rules post 9/11

This program is designed for lawyers, in-house counsel, accountants and consultants who provide advice to nonprofit organizations. The program will consist of lecture and lively discussion. Viewers can submit questions to the televised panelists through toll-free telephone lines.
