Phone: (513) 241-5605 Fax: (513) 361-8646

SCOPE AND PURPOSE

At this special six-hour telecast, the faculty, consisting of experts with extensive practical and teaching experience in the copyright and trademark areas, will focus on the handling of basic, everyday issues that practitioners in these areas and nonspecialists commonly encounter. Viewers will learn about:

- Basic principles of copyright law, trademark law and unfair competition law
- Practice and procedure before the Copyright Office and the Patent and Trademark Office
- The “nuts and bolts” of copyright and trademark infringement litigation
- Copyright and trademark licensing, including enforcement considerations in the Internet age

“Copyright and Trademark Law for the Nonspecialist” is designed for attorneys with little experience in copyright and trademark law, and as a review and update for those who need reacquaintance with intellectual property practice and procedure.
