EMPLOYMENT LAW ARBITRATION, PART ONE

Effective Advocacy in Employment Arbitration: The Basics

December 2, 2003 (12 Noon to 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time)

SCOPE AND PURPOSE

This course will address the nuts and bolts of effective representation in employment arbitration, with an emphasis on ways to maximize the benefits of the arbitral process. Experts drawn from all perspectives will examine each phase of employment arbitration, beginning with agreements to arbitrate and continuing through the entire process, highlighting issues such as

Submission of the claim and response

Selection of the arbitrator

Effective use of the pre-hearing process (including discovery and motion practice)

Methods of streamlining the hearing process

Application of evidentiary principles

The session also includes an overview of issues associated with enforcement and judicial review of awards and special considerations that are relevant when dealing with statutory claims and certain contractual issues such as non-compete clauses.
